Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Bundaberg Catholic Parish

Br Ted Magee

Today the sad news reached me of the death of Br Ted Magee. I know how hard this news will be to receive as he was very much a special person working among you in the parish community. My sympathy goes out to his family, especially his sister Jan and brother-in-law Greg and to Fr Don, all the priests and parish staff who have worked so closely with him over these past few years.

We will certainly miss Br Ted in the Diocese, but we are thankful for the great ministry that he had in Catholic education and in recent years parish ministry. I look forward to being with you next Wednesday as we say farewell to Br Ted and celebrate the Catholic funeral rites with you all at Holy Rosary Church.

I also extend my sympathy to the Christians Brothers. We give thanks for the presence of this great Brother, and all the brothers, who have served faithfully within the Diocese.

Lastly my dear people of Bundaberg, let us pray together that Br Ted is now in the House of the Father and enjoying eternal rest. May his good deeds go before him.

With prayers

Most Rev Michael McCarthy
Bishop of Rockhampton
